Wow!! One of the best-run shows on the agility circuit - and lots of people agree! Thanks to every single member who helped out and here are a few of the positive comments: It was fab - thanks for all the hard work I had a great time, thanks.

Thank you all at Wallingford DTC great show all your hard work was well worth it. Great show. Thanks to all of you who worked so hard. However, please turn the heating up next year...

Had a great day judging at show thank you Wallingford.

Lovely show and I really liked the big laminated poster on the secretary's tent. Thank you for all your hard work.

The weather undoubtedly helped but it was so well organised and so friendly. Thanks.

Well done to Aileen, Jacky and the rest of the Wallingford team. Thank you for having us back - I can't believe it has been 11 years since we did our first hire to you. (Hazel from First Contact) Not sure where Aileen Watson gets all her energy from!!

Thoroughly enjoyed it! Great atmosphere ... so nice to be back!

Excellent show. It was our first time and we'll definitely come again. A big thank you to all involved.

Thanks for a great show.

Thank you - a great weekend.

Always knackered but proud to be a Wallingford member at the end of our show. Well done guys...I even managed a clear or two!

Brill show and love how well you look after your judges and ring parties.

Thank you for a very enjoyable show! Had a fantastic weekend!

Lovely well run show, great trophies and rosettes and lovely helpful people in the sec's area.

Great show ...love doing ring party for you as always so good to us...fab time had by all

Well done on pushing the technological boundaries!

Cracking show, loved both days. Great show - rings very friendly. Thanks you!

The style and attention to your rosettes was far superior. I look forward to returning next year.

Brilliantly run show!

My First Wallingford Show

Me and Alfie have been Wallingford members for about 18 months. Because I work for a school I wasn't able to help set up Thursday and Friday but the flurry of Facebook posts and chats made me look forward to ring partying and spending time with a range of club members.

We had to arrive at Newbury show ground at 7.30am which would be a painful challenge! People at club who know me understand I struggle in the morning and my personal organiser for all club events had been incapacitated for the show! I did arrive on time thanks to Elisha and Sat Nav!

It was an awkward start with bacon rolls nowhere to be seen, finding out timings for ring party arrival had been changed (15 minutes extra in bed could have been had), but luckily my group from club had arrived so we took the unexpected leisurely start to familiarise ourselves the with layout of the rings. The whole of the showground was eerily quiet but within 20 minutes everyone, competitors and organisers alike, were out and about and the show came alive.

Ian and Suzie were my ring managers on Saturday. My first job was to secure a bacon sandwich for Ian – I must have done well as he promoted me to check in! It did take me longer than most to get the bacon roll but I was and am completely bamboozled by the blue string that separates the ring! I kept missing the gaps between the rings so ended up walking the long way round.

I got to try lots of ring partying jobs; checking in, pads, scoring and I enjoyed them all – even the maths in scoring did not defeat me! It was a real laugh and I was made to feel valued and appreciated for my time and effort.

What helped the day along was the plentiful supply of bourbon biscuits and tea mmmm bourbons mmmm! I was glad I didn't bring Alfie as lots of members were so engrossed in ring partying they forgot to walk courses and almost forgot to run their dogs!

I arrived on Sunday with a lot more confidence about what I was doing as part of a ring party! My ring was a little worse for wear after the night before – even the weather seemed tired; the sun was not out and the wind was bitter. For most of the morning I did pads and I lost the use of my fingers for a while due to cold but the competitors were understanding and helpful!

All rings finished and packed away everyone disappeared although loads of rings had forgotten to pack away the tents! Me and a few others were charged with taking them down. I am a camping novice and they were my Everest! They took forever and were very unwieldy! There were eight of us trying to get a tent in a bag at one point! I have decided I truly hate tents as the trauma caused by dismantling them has caused me nightmares!

I left at around 6 o'clock, extremely tired and my pedometer had counted over 17,000 steps which I'm not surprised at as my achy legs confirmed as much!

I'm looking forward to next Wallingford show – this year Jo had been praying for no rain so I think next year we should all upgrade our prayers to no rain and only light warm breezes! It was really nice opportunity to spend time with club members who I only get to say hi to when passing on Thursday nights! I feel more qualified to say I'm a Wallingford club member after the show weekend! Bring on next year (minus tents)!

First KC show Helping and Competing

What can I say, what an amazing few days it has been, so much hard work for everyone but what a great outcome. I arrived on the Friday at lunch to help, everything seemed quite calm and a lot had already been done, all the marquees were up and the rings were starting to take shape. I helped on the rings setting up the courses from the plans the judges had sent in.

I also went and helped on the gate directing the arriving campers and collecting money for Rosie's marathon. I left after getting Flo measured (after a slight mishap as the KC had not sent her registration out to me and I had to get on the phone to them at 4pm in the afternoon or she could not be measured). Unfortunately I left before the lovely Chinese arrived.

Saturday – arrived early so I could walk Flo and here was already a hive of activity and everyone seemed to know what they were doing. I think that it may have been quite nice for people who hadn't been to a KC show or helped before to have been buddied up with someone so that they could show them the ropes. I was helping on a ring with Gill and Tania which was good and ran smoothly. I did feel for those who had multiple dogs to run but they all seemed to manage ok.

Managed to walk all 3 courses and run Flo but I think my nerves went down to her and she decided she didn't know what a wait was and she didn't want to do weaves or jumps but just head for the tunnels again (thought we were cracking this obsession) but all in all was a good experience. Left to go home exhausted.

Sunday – early again but felt less nervous as was doing the same as yesterday. This time I was on Carolyn and Rosie's ring (one with a slight hangover!!). I had a better day with Flo too today, just got a 5 in the agility as she missed the weave entry (my fault). Then in the steeplechase she got a clear so well chuffed finished the day off nicely.

Right: Debbie and Flo in their steeplechase clear round

After all the rings finished everything had to be cleared which took quite some time.

My hat goes off to all those who were there from start to finish you did an amazing job and there were so many positive comments about the show. Left to go home totally exhausted only to spend 3hrs in A&E with hubby! But pleased that I had been part of a great show and team.

We had 7573 individual entries (i.e. runs) over the two days (7,246 entries last show) of which only 448 (6%) were paper entries as opposed to online entries. At the last show just under 9% of the entries were postal entries, so the number entering online is increasing slowly. On Saturday there were 4220 runs, giving an average of just over 350 runs per ring. On Sunday the 3315 runs gave an average of 368 runs per ring.

Show results for Watchdog are usually taken straight from the Wiki. I do not want to miss anyone out, so please if you are not on the Wiki yet talk to Gill Rhodes about getting access! If you do this your show results will also be added to the club spreadsheet and you will be eligible for the annual awards given out at each AGM - don't miss out!

Don't forget to send items for the next issue to Puppy photos, non-agility achievements, and anything else vaguely interesting always welcome!
